NEW YORK, July 6.—Led by the United Societies of Christian Endeavor with 4,000,000 members and the International Association of Police Chiefs, a movement is on foot with show of success to prevent the exhibition of the pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight that promises to be international in its scope.

The Christian Endeavor Society, through its Boston headquarters, telegraphed to the governor of every state in the union, asking that the pictures be barred on the ground that they reproduce an illegal act and that their exhibition will be just as illegal as the actual fight.

Secretary Wm. Shaw declared today that he had wired President Taft, Col. Roosevelt, and Gov. Hughes asking them to use their influence to prevent the pictures from being exhibited.

The American Vitagraph Co., which owns the films of the fight, is believed to have expended a quarter of a million dollars in purchasing the exclusive rights and in taking the pictures. Jeffries was paid $66,666 while Johnson got $50,000. Rickard and Gleason got a "cut" and still own one-sixth of the rights. In addition the moving picture concern spent a small fortune sending a score of expert operators to Reno and in other incidental expenses. The picture people expected to take in $1,000,000 during the first month the films were on exhibition.

Profits May Decrease

This sum is sure to be reduced materially if the agitation against the production of the pictures continues to spread.

Among the larger cities that have put the stamp of disapproval on the pictures are Washington, the national capital; Boston, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Atlanta.

count their advertising appropriation as an investment on which they draw their best dividends.

Money invested in good advertising is not an expenditure, it is an investment that is sure to pay big dividends, if carefully watched. If a few hundred dollars each year invested in good advertising will bring you twice as much in profits, you'd consider it a good investment, wouldn't you?

It's doing this and more every year for thousands of others.

Why shouldn't it do it for you?

Your investment should be in The Tribune, as it takes your advertising to thousands of readers when they are planning their purchases.

POLICE TO STOP NEGRO PARADE

Fear of Rioting at Chicago Following Display by Blacks Causes Order Today

"DOPE" TALK STARTS ANEW

Intimation Out Jeffries was Drugged; Optic Nerve Is Permanently Affected

CHICAGO, July 6.—Fear of race riots today led Chief of Police Steward to issue an order prohibiting the parade and celebration which had been planned in honor of Jack Johnson on his arrival here Thursday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 6.—It is difficult to imagine a greater change in a man than that presented by James J. Jeffries today when he stepped off his private car in the depot at Oakland.

Jeffries was clearly not the same triumphant Jeffries who boarded another private car in the same station less than a month ago, bound for the battleground at Reno. Then he looked every inch the athlete, trained to the minute. Today he presented the appearance of an old man, broken dejected, the picture of weakness.

A fair sized crowd met the fallen idol at the station but there was scarcely a cheer; Jeffries' old admirers seemed to feel that he would prefer to efface himself from the scene as quietly as possible.

The boiler maker went direct from the depot to the home of his old friend, Lick Adams, where he will remain a short time before going to southern California.

Jeffries and his handlers would not discuss the agitation against the fight pictures, though Jeffries is reported to have said on the train enroute from Reno that he was glad he had sold his share before the battle.

Old Admirers Bitter

Among Jeffries' old admirers, and even among the men who trained him and handled him during his fight with Johnson, bitterness is beginning to crop out.

Some of his trainers and many of the sporting writers who were lauding Jeffries to the skies before the battle, today criticised the boiler maker for the poor showing he made against Johnson.

The trainers appeared to think that Jeffries himself was entirely to blame while the sporting writers apparently believe that Jeffries fought as if he feared the negro, allowing Johnson to "get his goat" from the outset.

Dope Talk Grows

The talk that Jeffries was "doped" in order to render him an easy prey for the black man, will not down and was freely circulated today, despite the emphatic denials given out in Reno yesterday.

Eye Permanently Affected

ABOARD JEFFRIES' SPECIAL CAR, Sacramento, Cal., July 6.—Although efforts have been made to keep the fact secret, a blow which Jack Johnson delivered in the second round of his fight with Jeffries on Monday paralyzed the optic nerve of Jeff's right eye and possibly permanently injured the white man's sight.

Jeffries made light of the blow at first but admitted today that the right side of his face was still affected, that the sight of his right eye had been deranged and that the optic nerve was still partially paralyzed. Jeff is able to see very little with his right eye. His doctors hold out strong hopes, however, that he will eventually recover his full sight

SERVICES TODAY FOR JUSTICE M. W. FULLER

SORRENTO, Me., July 6.—With Associate Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes here as the official representative of the United States supreme court, simple funeral services were held this afternoon over the body of Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller. Interment will be made on Friday in Chicago.

50,000 AWAIT STRIKE

NEW YORK, July 6.—Fully fifty thousand cloak makers await the "red letter call" to a strike today. The call rests in the hands of a special committee of the union and it is expected to be issued within the next 48 hours. A strike of the New York cloak makers would go a long way toward tying up the cloak and suit industry in the east as a large percentage of the manufacturing of cloaks and suits is done here.

TEDDY'S CHOICE RANK INSURGENT

Endorsement of Bitterest Cannon Foe by the Ex-President Has Great Significance

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 6.—Representative Miles Poindexter, whom Roosevelt has been credited with having endorsed for United States senator from Washington, is one of the nine most radical insurgent republicans in the house and the ex-president's action is looked upon here today as having great political significance. Poindexter's insurgency dates back of his service in congress. He made his first campaign on a clear cut, anti-regular, anti-Cannon platform. In Spokane his political friends say that he was put up by the local republican machine with a secret prayer that he would be defeated by his democratic opponent, Wm. Goodyear. Poindexter, in the face of this attitude of his own party, carried his district by 15,000 majority out of a total vote of 65,000

Since entering congress Poindexter has followed the most militant course in insurgency. He was one of the nine republicans who voted to unseat Cannon. Even Norris of Nebraska balked at this and in the last days of the session just ended several of the most thorough insurgents were selected to hold Poindexter in check to keep him from precipitating another fight against the speaker.

On every occasion Poindexter insurged. In the rules fight, in the selection of the Ballinger-Pinchot committee, in fact upon every vote where insurgency was thought of, Poindexter voted constantly against the republican organization.

In the entire insurgent wing of the house, no man is more cordially hated, politically, by Cannonites than Poindexter.

The regulars frequently call him a "democrat."

Didn't Endorse Poindexter

NEW YORK, July 6.—Col. Roosevelt made the following statement at the office of the Outlook shortly after his arrival today:

"Mr. Roosevelt will see very many senators, congressmen, assemblymen and other public officers, representing all the phases of public opinion. He declines to be responsible for any statements excepting those which he himself makes. Mr. Roosevelt has said nothing and intends to say nothing as to any contest for a nomination."

Adding to his formal statement the colonel said: "In regard to the conference that Mr. Poindexter and I had yesterday, I will say that I was pleased to find that his past record in regard to conservation and similar subjects was in hearty accordance with mine. I did not express or represent to him any opinions regarding his senatorial nomination and Mr. Poindexter did not ask me for any.

"I do not believe that Mr. Poindexter is responsible for the statements that appear in this morning's paper, except as I have indicated.

"We did not go over the political situation in the northwest, nor did we touch upon the Ballinger affair."

Roosevelt promised a delegation of the Pittsburg Civic Commission that he would attend a public meeting there early next fall.

Representative Hamilton Fish will call upon the colonel tomorrow at Sagamore Hill. Roosevet expects the following visitors next week: Senator Beveridge of Indiana, Gov Hughes, William Barnes, Jr., and Speaker Wadsworth, all of New York.

After writing a few editorials the ex-president returned to Sagamore Hill.

JURY HAS CASE OF JACK PLEIN

Spectators Believe Federal Grand Jury Investigation will Be Recommended This Afternoon

Ten witnesses were examined today by the coroner at Caledonia, Minn., into the death of John Plein, who was burned to death in the hull of the ill-fated J. S. They included the diver, mate, fireman and lunch counter proprietor.

The jury retired shortly after 3 o'clock and an immediate verdict is expected. The jury is instructed to bring in one of two answers. One recommends a federal grand jury investigation of the case and fixes the liability of the owners of the excursion boat and the other merely sets the cause and responsibility of Plein's death. Spectators expect a quick verdict and predict the jury will demand a federal investigation.

The boat employes testified that the lights were on in the hold and that the gates were open and that Plein had ample chance to escape. One witness for the relatives

TAFT AND TEDDY ON SAME ROSTRUM

Both May Make Speeches on Conservation at the Big St. Paul Conference

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 6.—President Taft may stand upon the platform with his predecessor, Colonel Roosevelt, when the National Consevation Congress meets in St. Paul in September, and discuss before the same audience, with former president, the development and preservation of the nation's "material resources."

This is not a mere possibility, but a probability.

While the president has made no public utterance with reference to the congress that will convene in St. Paul, this is very likely, due to the fact that, because of elaborate plans that are under way for extending to him the proper courtesies of his office, he has not yet been approached on the subject of his attendance.

That President Taft will be invited to come to St. Paul and to present his views on the conservation movement was vouchsafed today by Thos. R. Shipp, secretary of the National Conservation association, who arrived here yesterday to take charge of the arrangements for the September meeting.

President Taft has declared himself to be favorable to conservation projects. This is advanced as an argument indicative of the probable attendance of the chief executive at the gathering, which promises to be by far the greatest since the inception of the movement in a public way, when the governors were invited by President Roosevelt to attend a conference at the White house in 1908.

PRISONER SHOOTS SELF IN CELL

KILLS A BETRAYER SOUTHERNER FREE

Arkansas Clerk Finds a Friend of the Family with Wife and Cuts Him Into Shreds

DEAD MAN A CHAUFFEUR

Coroners Jury Called and Quickly Acquits the Slayer on Plea of Unwritten Law

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 6.—After rushing into his home at Conway, several hours' ride from here, late yesterday, and finding Higgins Gibson, 18, in his wife's room, stabbing the young man to death and then giving himself up to the police, John Pitcock, chief clerk of the Arkansas penitentiary, was exonerated of the slaying of Gibson today by the coroner's jury. Pitcock pleaded the unwritten law.

Pitcock's suspicions were aroused yesterday when he received a telephone message from a friend saying all was not right at his home. He took the evening train for Conway and arriving there,ran seven blocks to his house. Rushing into his wifes bedroom, saw two bare feet protruding from under the bed and without seeking to learn the identity of the intruder, Pitcock dragged him out and plunged a knife twenty times through Gibson's body. Gibson was literally cut to pieces. Anyone of the seven wounds would have resulted in instant death.

Mrs. Pitcock had run from the house and took refuge in a cotton shed, remaining there all night. Pitcock fired at her with a revolver as she fled but missed.

Pitcock expressed regret today that the intruder proved to be Gibson, as the young man was an old friend of the family. Gibson was a chauffeur for T. L. Daniels, a wealthy planter, and although he often visited the Pitcock home, Pitcock said he had not expected to find that he was taking advantage of his friendship.

Pitcock is a brother of James Pitcock, superintendent of the penitentiary.

DON'T WANT BLACK TO GO TO CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 6. — The Pastors' federation of this city in session today voted to make formal protest to the commissioners and chief of police against a possible visit of Jack Johnson to Washington on the same ground that protest was made against the exhibition of the fight pictures.

The ministers do not think it would be possible to keep Johnson away by law, if he desired to come, but think it would be advisable for the police and municipal authorities to ask him to stay away.

BRYAN IS NOT A CANDIDATE

LINCOLN, Neb., July 6.—Wm. J. Bryan announced flatly this afternoon in a formal statement that he would not be a candidate for the United States senate. Bryan in his statement declares that he intends to take a hand in the coming campaign in Nebraska against the liquor interests and that he does not intend to be hampered in his effort by a candidacy for any office.

MILLERS LOSE IN "BLEACHING" CASE

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 6.—The federal jury before whom the "bleached flour" case was tried, returned a decison against the millers.

The verdict means a financial loss running into the millions of dollars for the grain dealers, millers and farmers of the southwest, according to reports of the three different trades.

DAKOTA REPUBLICANS ENDORSE ROOSEVELT

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., July 6. — Giving President Taft a strong endorsement, but bitterly arraigning "Aldrichism" and "Cannonism," the republican state convention today adopted its platform. Willis C. Cook, of Sioux Falls, state chairman for the past four years, was re-elected.

STEEL TRUST MAN FOR CHIEF JUSTICE

M'KEESPORT, Pa., July 6.—The McKeesport News today nominated Congressman John Dalzell to the United States supreme court bench to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Chief Justice Fuller. Dalzell is the "steel trust" congressman.

BLAMES WHITE RACE

PARIS, July 6.—Under the caption of "Civilized Savages," Henri Rochefort, the noted political writer, and satirist, in today's La Patrie, blames the white race in America for the negro riots following the Reno fight.

CYCLONE WRECKS RINGLING TENT

Two Thousand People Have Narrow Escape in a Wind Storm at Watertown

FALLEN CANVAS IS IGNITED

But Victims Are Rescued without Injury; Box Cars Blown From the Tracks

WATERTOWN, S. D., July 6.—A fierce wind storm, bordering on a cyclone, struck this vicinity last night, followed by the heaviest rain and electrical storm of the season, tearing down telephone and telegraph poles and completely cutting off communication for several hours. The principal damage in the city was to the center section of the Ringling Brothers circus tent. This was partly leveled as the storm struck and caught fire almost instantly from the gasoline lights used to illuminate the interior.

Two thousand persons had gathered for the evening performance and there was great excitement, but nothing like a stampede. Attaches of the circus and the police of the city aided the spectators in getting out, and no one, so far as known, was injured. Two roustabouts employed by the show company had their arms broken.

Seven miles south of here three box cars standing on a siding of the South Dakota Central railway were blown from the rails. This is the only outside loss reported here. It is early yet for full reports from country districts.

PIRATE'S GOLD A PLANT OF "QUEER"

NEW YORK, July 6.—Having found the hidden treasure of the pirates' main, James Murphy of Cannon Lake, Staten Island, is today hunting for the miscreant who made the "plant."

For two years Murphy has been tramping the Staten Island woods seeking the treasure. Yesterday he found a chest deep in the woods and struggled home with it.

"We're rich at last," he told his wife. "Now we'll buy an automobile and go to Europe."

But the wife, being skeptical, called in the village jeweler, who said the "gold coins" were pennies gilded over, the "pieces of eight" were lead dipped in quick silver, and the "rare jewels" were about as pasty as were ever made.

BALLINGER EXPECTS TAFT'S SUPPORT

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 6.—The attitude of Secretary Ballinger today left no doubt that he expects thorough support of his policies from President Taft.

Ballinger appeared satisfied with his visit at Beverely yesterday. He said that there was no change in the status of matters in the interior department and that the changes in the reclamation in the service would be carried out in accordance with his policies.

The long reported question of the removal of Director H. H. Newell of the reclamation service was not discussed by Ballinger today.

MOTORBOAT CLUB PICNICS JULY 17

Gala Day for Ladies and Members Arranged at Beautiful Ferndale Grounds

MAY TAKE A BRASS BAND

Details of big July Outing Left in Hands of Committee with Power to Act

At a meeting of the entertainment committee and officers of the La Crosse Motorboat Club, called last evening at the La Crosse Club by Chairman E. J. Bjorkman, arrangements were practically completed for the big July outing of members of the Motorboat club, their families and friends. That it will be the his event of the year in Motorboatdom is assured and it is expected that practically every boat propelled by gasoline power in La Crosse will be in line when the big procession forms at 9:30 the morning of July 17th, the date selected.

The first outing given by the club was a stag affair, and its success was so great that it was decided to hold a second outing this month to which the ladies will be especially invited. This time each boat owner is given the privilege to invite as many guests as he desires, each boat bringing a basket lunch to supply its occupants. The club will engage a caterer and will furnish coffee, cream, sugar, lemonade and ice, parties being required only to bring cups, glasses and spoons.

John P. Salzer has granted the use, for the second time, of his magnificent summer home, Ferndale, for the use of the Motorboat club and the ladies will be given an opportunity to view this beautiful spot.

The committee discussed the advisability of engaging a brass band to furnish music for the outing, and it is expected this will be done, although a definite decision is to be reached later.

It is proposed to start the parade from the Singer boat livery promptly at 9 o'clock, the flagship running around the bridge and the other boats forming into line as at the first picnic. There will also probably be offered prizes for the best decorated boat, as it is desired that all boats decorate to some extent for the coming picnic. In case a band is engaged the musicians will occupy the Bell-Singer launch, behind the flagship in the parade. At the grounds a program arranged by Dr. Bjorkman's committee will be given right of way, and chief among the events will be a baseball game.

The Motorboat club has added about 35 new members during the present season and at present practically every boatowner in La Crosse has either joined or signified his intention of so doing. This will mean that practically every boat in the city will be in line July 17th, barring unfavorable weather.

The return will be made before dusk, as was the case last time. The committee meanwhile is arranging details of the program which will be announced in full later.

BENEZET NAMED SUPERINTENDENT

Formal Appointment Is Made at Regular Meeting of School Board Last Evening

Although it had been practically settled some time ago that Prof. L. P. Benezet was to become superintendent of public schools of this city to succeed Prof. John P. Bird, who retired, the formal election was not made until last evening at the regular monthly meeting of the board of education. Professor Benezet has been principal of the high school for the past three years.

Boundaries Changed

Several changes were made in the boundaries of the several school districts, this being done upon recommendation of Mr. Bird. The districts established are now as follows:

First district, all territory east of West avenue and north of Madison; second district, all territory west of West avenue and north of Cass; third district, all territory between Cass and Mississippi to Thirteenth, between Cass and Adams from Thirteenth to Fifteenth, between Madison and Adams from Fifteenth to the city limits; all territory south of the southern boundary of the third district is included in the sixth district; on the north side all territory south of St. Paul street is included in the fifth district; all territory north of St. Paul street is included in the seventh district.

President Luening recommended that paper towels be used in the schools instead of linen towels, because the pink eye, it was thought, was spread among the pupils through the use of the common towels.

Miss Janet Klosheim and Miss McFarland were granted leaves of absence for one year. The request of Professor Fuller, teacher in manual training, to be released from his contract, was held up by the board until a successor can be secured.

The board ordered repairs made at the several school buildings during the present summer, including the construction of a new smokestack at the Washington school.

DISCOURAGED JEW SUICIDES IN PARK

CHICAGO, July 6.—A man who the police believe is a Jew from New York city, committed suicide early today by drinking carbolic acid. He was found by the police in a small park in the ghetto district. He died in a few minutes.

A note found on the body written in Yiddish, read: "I am tired of living. Life has no attractions for me. I have no money and am out of work. My people know not where I am. they will never know."

The note was not signed.

All you have to do to find out how good an opinion a man has of himself is to let him talk.

THE FINEST FLOUR IN THE WORLD

What think you of a mill that has been obliged to run steadily, full capacity, twenty-four hours a day, for the past year, and is then behind on orders? Such is the fact in regard to the WINGOLD mill. Many mills, older and more widely advertised, are running half capacity, or perhaps half time. We leave you to draw your own conclusions.

SPECTACULAR FALL FROM AN AEROPLANE

AURORA, Ill., July 6.—Frederick Welsh, an aviator, driving a Wright aeroplane, is today recovering from bruises received here yesterday when he fell 800 feet with his machine to the ground. He was only slightly injured. Fully 8,000 people witnessed the accident. Welsh attained a height of over 800 feet when something went wrong. The shifting of levers did not help the situation and with the aeroplane he fell rapidly to the earth. When within fifty feet of the ground the machine righted itself and glided to the ground with damage nothing more serious than smashed planes and a few twisted braces.

MAY PROHIBIT USE OF ALL FIREWORKS

CHICAGO, July 6.—The success of the "sane Fourth" throughout the country led Fire Marshal Horan to recommend the complete prohibition of the use of fireworks in Chicago and the matter is before the city council today.

A RICH VALLEY! NEW RAILROAD

One of the most beautiful valleys in the west is the famous valley of the Belle Fourche, located just north of the great mining centers of Deadwood in the Black Hills district, and is being opened up to settlers by means of the Belle Fourche Government Irrigation Project, which is now nearing completion.

Recognizing the importance of the development which will follow the placing of this rich and fertile valley under irrigation, the Chicago & Northwestern announces the opening to traffic of their new Belle Fourche Valley line. This new line, which has just recently been constructed, extends from Belle Fourche eastward and passes directly through the center of the irrigated district. The new towns of Fruitdale and Nisland have been opened, and the line is now open between Belle Fourch and Nisland, connecting at Belle Fourche with the main line of the Northwestern to Omaha, Sioux City, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Chicago.

A highly successful sale of town lot property recently took place at Nisland, and a great many people are coming into the valley, some of them purchasing irrigated land and many others finding in the new towns that are opening up excellent opportunities for business openings which they are rapidly taking advantage of.

There are still a number of farm tracts to be secured from the government on easy tems, at a figure to cover only the cost of the irrigating plant (about $30.00 per acre), and this nominal price for land, which is probably worth $100 or more as soon as the first crop has been raised, is so arranged that the purchaser may divide it up into ten annual payments, and these are without interest.

The government and the railway company have both issued quite a little advertising matter descriptive of the valley and its possibilities, and both are deeply interested in the development which is pretty sure to folliw quickly the opening of the land to settlers.

Some women have a habit of taking special pains to make their husbands jealous. If there is one thing a woman needn't take special pains to do, that's it; a husband will always be jealous enough without any special effort on the part of his wife.—Atchison Globe.

IS IT NOT THE END?

Will the Jeffries slaughter end finish prize fighting?

One need not be an optimist to hope so. It will take more than the classics written by Rex Beach and Jack London to convince sober minded people that there was anything inspiring or heroic in the spectacle. It matters not why Jack Johnson was able to beat down this hitherto unbeaten white champion. It matters not who won, so far as the brutal, pitiable thing is concerned. What matters is the fact that in this great enlightened nation it is considered "sport" for two human beings to drub each other into insensibility for money. We are not impressed with the "humiliation" of having a white champion defeated by a black thug; rather do we believe the humiliation lies in a white man having condescended to fight the black. This bosh about upholding the honor of the white peoples is unworthy of consideration, for there is no honor for anybody, white or black, in thuggery. It is perhaps better that the "championship" fell into dusky hands, for if the Caucasian is higher in the line of civilization, pugilism belongs to the African.

But it is not alone the bestiality of the gory prize ring that disgusts level headed folk. There is the immensely more important fact that, taken at its squarest, the fight game is a great graft by which people are mulcted out of millions, in the aggregate. This last "mill" is "doped" as strictly "on the square." If that means that Johnson fairly "knocked out" Jeffries, it was "on the square." But if to be "on the square" means straight dealing from beginning to end, the Reno battle was the most immense of hoaxes.

The "dope" has been all for Jeffries. The keenest sporting writers, with few exceptions, have declared him a sure winner. The old ring generals and fight judges have been almost a unit in saying there was "nothing to it but Jeff." And what are the facts?

Can anybody who has read the story of that fight, who saw from the first move how little of the old fighting "Jeff" remained, who realized almost from the first blow how utterly powerless was he to cope with the negro—can any sane person who observed these things believe that the trainers of Jeffries and most of the ring "dopesters" did not know that the big boiler maker was merely consenting to take the hardest kind of a licking for approximately $100,000? Does anyone doubt that, had he not wanted to give the moving picture men a chance, Johnson could have finished the painful affair in half the time? Is it not patent that the whole thing, from the first dragging of Jeffries from his alfalfa farm, was a huge fiasco?

American decency has long been in rebellion against this coarse, unmanly game. Public opinion has driven the "sport" from one arena to another until, at last, it can find housing only in the heart of the Great American Desert. Is not the fact that the "mitts" have been driven to the wilderness, coupled with this last disgraceful monstrosity, enough to suggest that these pugs must soon be driven back to the shovel, which is too good for them? Do not the riots and murders inspired by this fight seem to compel their elimination?

NEWSPAPER "CONTROL"

We quote from the Emporia (Kansas) Gazette:

"The Atchison Globe says that no advertiser has ever tried to control its editorial policy, the remark being occasioned by the charge often made nowadays, that the big advertisers direct the editorial policy of newspapers.

"The experience of the Globe is the experience of most newspapers. The merchant does a great deal of advertising is more interested in the circulation department of a newspaper than in the editorial department. If a daily paper goes to the homes of the people, and is read by them, he is satisfied, and it may chase after any theory or fad, for all he cares. He has troubles of his own, and he isn't trying to shoulder those of the editorial brethren.

"There are newspapers controlled by people outside or the editorial rooms, and a good many of them, more's the pity; but the people exercising that control are not the business men who pay their money for advertising space. The newspapers which are established for political purposes are often controlled by chronic officeseekers, whose first concern is their own interests. There are newspapers controlled by great corporations, and the voice of such newspapers is always raised in protest against any genuine reform.

"The average western newspaper usually is controlled by its owner, and he is supposed to be in duty bound to make all sorts of sacrifices at all sorts of times; there are people who consider it his duty to insult his advertisers, just to show that he is free and independent. If he shows a decent respect for his patrons, who pay him their money, and make it possible for him to carry on the business, he is 'subsidized' or 'controlled.' The newspaper owner is a business man, like the dry goods man or the grocer. The merchants are expected to have consideration for their customers, and they are not supposed to be subsidized by the man who spends five dollars with them, but the publisher is expected to demonstrate his courage by showing that he is ungrateful for the patronage of his friends. It is a funny combination, when you think it over."

We are happy to say that, in our opinion, the era of the "dominated" newspaper is nearly over. We do not fully share the optimism of the Emporia paper, for we have too close view of papers of the old style, subsidized by politicians, ruled by that class of advertisers who represent "business in politics." But we do believe that, with the enlightenment of the reader, a more wholesome condition is growing prevalent.

The emancipation of the press is due to the fact that wherever the independent newspaper has started in competition with the old subsidized paper the independent one has won. That is because the public, understanding, has flocked to its support. An old newspaper, established in the confidence and good will of its field, is almost impregnable. But the old newspaper that is known as a cheat and a deceiver, that colors its news, that bows to the dishonest dollar, has no show with the "upstart" publication that goes in to win on frankness and honest dealing. Experience having taught this fact, new independent papers are fast replacing such subsidized papers as are not wise enough to anticipate doom by the adoption of a new policy of clean dealing.

The Tribune was five rounds ahead of all competition in delivering the fight by rounds July 4th. It is just that far ahead in this field in all things journalistic. It buys the best service and it pays for it. It gives its patrons the goods they pay for. This is not braggadocia; it is the extolling of that which we have to sell, just as the merchant presents to his prospective customer the excellence of his wares. And scores of people who came from other papers and news agencies to find The Tribune twenty minutes ahead of all of them, will vouch for the accuracy of the foregoing.

Senator Morris' speech at Blue Mounds was one of keen intelligence. There was no ranting at the men who, many of them from honest conviction, misunderstanding, are supporting government by class as against government by the mass. The picture of the thing as it is was drawn in clean cut fashion, and the appeal made was not the sort to embitter, but was designed to impel action on the part of those who believe in popular rule. The argument was clothed in an historical analogy in every way true and convincing. That sort of talk will tell in the present campaign.

Mr. Hyde laughed when sentenced to life imprisonment for the Swope murder. He laughed when first charged with the crime. Doubtless he laughed when administering the fatal capsules. His mirth does not show a clean heart; it shows, rather, a depraved mind numbed to the finer emotions that move clean men.

GOODBYE, "J. S.," GOODBYE

(By H. W. Arthur.)

Yes, old "J. S." we miss you,
Your place is hard to fill,
Our hearts seem sad without you
And devoid of joyous thrill;
When fate in all her mystery
Decreed your days were o'er,
With streaming eyes we left you
Anchored close to the wooded shore.
It was then you looked your proudest,
Ablaze from stem to stern,
You seemed to taunt the fire
And defied it your decks to burn.
But the doom that marks the ending
Of all things beneath the skies
Had descended like a mantle
And hid you from our eyes.
With bowed heads we seek new shelter
And with a deep, heart-sore sigh,
Say "Farewell, Oh! Faithful!"
Goodbye, "J. S.," Goodbye!

Note.—Mr. Arthur, who is one of the crew of the "J. S.," was the last man to leave the steamer at the time of the fire. "I'm a cowpuncher, not a poet," said Mr. Arthur, "but this tribute to the good old boat was in my heart and compelled utterance."

Two years ago my back ached almost constantly and I had a bearing down pain in my loins. Being advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at Erhart & Son's drug store and it was not long after using them that I was entirely free from backache. ## THE Goose Girl

By HAROLD McGRATH

Copyright by Bobbs-Merrill Company

"You are a strange lover. I never read anything like you in story-books. Forgive me! I am thoughtless. The subject may be painful to you."

The horses began to pull. Under normal circumstances Carmichael would not have dismounted, but his horse had carried him many miles that morning, and he was a merciful rider. In the war days often had his life depended upon the care of his horse.

"You have been riding hard?"

"No, only far."

"I do not believe that there is a finer horseman in all Ehrenstein than yourself."

"Your highness is very good to say that." Why had he not gone on instead of waiting at the fork?

Within a few hundred yards of the gates he mounted again. And then he saw a lonely figure sitting on the parapet. He would have recognized that square form anywhere. And he welcomed the sight of it.

"Your Highness, do you see that man yonder on the parapet? We fought in the same cavalry. He is covered with scars. Not one man in a thousand would have gone through what he did and lived."

"Is he an American?"

"By adoption. And may I ask a favor of your highness?"

"Two!" merrily.

"May I present him. It will be the joy of his life."

"Certainly. All brave men interest me."

Grumbach rose up, uncovered, thinking that the riders were going to pass him. But to his surprise his friend Carmichael stopped his horse and beckoned to him.

"Herr Grumbach," said Carmichael, "her serene highness desires me to present you."

Hans was stricken dumb. He knew of no greater honor.

"Mr. Carmichael," she said in English, "tells me that you fought with him in the American war?"

"Yes, Highness."

She plied him with a number of questions; how many battles they had fought in, how many times they had been wounded, how they lived in camp, and so forth; and which was the more powerful engine of war, the infantry, or the cavalry.

"The cavalry, Highness," said Hans, without hesitation.

She laughed. "If you had been a foot-soldier you would have said the infantry; of the artillery, you would have sworn by the cannon."

"That is true, Highness. The three arms are necessary, but there is ever the individual pride in the arm one serves in."

"And that is right. You speak good English," she remarked.

"I have lived more than sixteen years in America, Highness."

"Do you like it there?"

"It is a great country, full of great ideas and great men, Highness."

"And you will go back?"

"Soon, Highness."

The mare, knowing that this was the way home, grew restive and began prancing and pawing the road. She reined in quickly. As she did so, something yellow flashed downward and tinkled as it struck the ground. Grumbach hastened forward.

"My locket," said her highness anxiously.

"It is not broken, Highness," said Grumbach; "only the chain has come apart." Then he handed it to her gravely.

"Thank you!" Her highness put both chain and locket into a small purse which she carried in her belt, touched the mare, and sped up the road, Carmichael following.

Grumbach returned to the parapet. He followed them till they passed out of sight beyond the gates.

"Gott!" he murmured.

His face was as livid as the scar on his head.

CHAPTER XV.

Herbeck dropped his quill, and there was a dream in his eyes. His desk was littered with papers, well covered with ink; flowing sentences, and innumerable figures. He was the watch-dog of the duchy. Never a bill from the Reichstag that did not pass under his cold eye before it went to the duke for his signature, his approval, or veto. Not a copper was needlessly wasted, and never was one held back unnecessarily. Herbeck was just both in great and little things. The commoners could neither fool nor browbeat him.

The dream in his eyes grew; it was tender and kindly. The bar of sunlight lengthened across his desk, and finally passed on. Still he sat there, motionless, rapt. And thus the duke found him. But there was no dream in his eyes; they were cold with implacable anger. He held a letter in his hand and tossed it to Herbeck.

"I shall throw ten thousand men across the frontier tonight, let the consequences be what they may."

"Ten thousand men?" The dream was shattered. War again?

"Read that. It is the second anonymous communication I have received within a week. As the first was truthful, there is no reason to believe this one to be false."

Herbeck read, and he was genuinely startled.

"What do you say to that?" triumphantly.

"This," with that rapid decision which made him the really great tactician he was. "Let them go quietly back to Jugendheit."

"No!" blazed the duke.

"Are we rich enough for war?"

"Always questions, questions! What the devil is my army for if not to uphold my dignity? Herbeck, you shall not argue me out of this."

"Rather let me reason. This is some prank, which I am sure does not concern Ehrenstein in the least. They would never dare enter Dreiberg for aught else. There must be a flaw in our secret service."

"Doubtless."

"I have seen this writing before," said Herbeck. "I shall make it my business to inquire who it is that takes this kindly interest in the affairs of state."

The duke struck the bell violently. "Summon the chief of the police," he said to the secretary.

"Yes, yes, your Highness, let it be a police affair. This letter does not state the why and wherefore of their presence here.'"

"It holds enough for me."

"Will your Highness leave the matter in my hands?"

"Herbeck, in some things you are weak."

"And in others I am strong," smiled the chancellor. "I am weak when there is talk of war; I am strong when peace is in the balance."

"Is it possible, Herbeck, that you do not appreciate the magnitude of the situation?"

"It is precisely because I do that I wish to move slowly. Wait. Let the police find out why they are here. There will be time enough then to declare war. They have never seen her highness. Who knows?"

"Ah! But they have violated the treaty."

"That depends upon whether their presence here is or is not a menace to the state. If they are here on private concerns which in no wise touch Ehrenstein, it would be foolhardy to declare war. Your Highness is always letting your personal wounds blur your eyesight. Some day you will find that Jugendheit is innocent."

"God hasten the day and hour!"

"Yes, let us hope that the mystery of it all will be cleared up. You are just and patient in everything but this." Herbeck idled with his quill. The little finger of his right hand was badly scarred, the mutilation of a fencing-bout in his student days.

Every old sore is an infected spot on the flesh, kept open by constant drainage of impure blood into the place.

One of the principal constituents of blood is plasma, a healing property. Where the circulation is pure this element of the blood, which is of a glutinous or sticky nature, performs the necessary work in healing all sores, wounds and lacerations. It does this by sticking or joining the parts together, while nature causes a knitting of the tissues and solidifies the place.

This healing property is frequently destroyed by impure accumulations in the blood, and this vital fluid not only loses its power to heal, but becomes a source of irritation and disease to any open sore or ulcer on the body. Constantly it discharges its morbid matters into the place, and gradually it causes the infection to spread, and the sore enlarges. The morbid matter in the blood comes from different causes. A long spell of debilitating sickness, which breeds disease germs in the system, the retention of the refuse matters of the body because of a sluggish condition of the eliminative members, a continued malarial state of the system, inherited bad blood, etc., are usually responsible.

CURED OF EATING SORE.

Dear Sirs:—I was suffering greatly from a sore on my left breast, which had begun to eat, and at times deep, shooting pains would pass through it, and the ulcer was discharging yellow and rather offensive matter. I consulted physicians, but their treatment did not benefit me very much. My condition seemed hopeless, and I had almost despaired of getting well. I knew that the disease was hereditary in my case, as an only sister, my mother and two of her sisters had died of Cancer of the breast. After I had finished the first bottle of S.S.S. I felt some better, so continued it until I was cured.

MRS. JAMES CASSELL, Belton, Mo.

S. S. S. heals sores and ulcers in the very simplest way. It just goes into the circulation, and removes the impurities and polluted matter that are the means of keeping the ulcer open; then the sore is bound to heal. S.S.S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and not only does it cleanse the circulation, but it adds every necessary property to it to promote good health. It is of the very greatest tonic value, and those who have been weakened and run down by the constitutional drainage of an old sore will find it the very remedy needed. S.S.S. does not simply cause a scab to come over an old sore, but beginning at the bottom it heals the place permanently by building new tissue and filling in the place with firm, healthy flesh. ## WED AT NORTH SIDE CARNIVAL

Prominent Local Young People will Be Married in the Street at 8:30 Tomorrow Night

One of the most interesting features of the North side carnival will occur tomorrow evening when a prominent local couple will be married on a platform in the street. The affair is creating much interest, curiosity and inquisitiveness as to the identity of the couple which is still a mystery and which Secretary Gibson of the amusement association says will remain a secret until tomorrow evening.

It has been whispered about that the couple will make their first appearance on the streets of the carnival this evening and it is expected that curious persons will be making all sorts of guesses as to who the lady may be.

The streets last night were crowded and the shows reported excellent business all the evening. The police have no complaints to make, they say. The crowd so far has behaved itself well and no complaints have been made to the police department. As far as known no pickpockets have been working here. Last year, the greater share of them were caught and the "dips" seem to have decided to leave the attraction alone.

The voting for the queen of the carnival is drawing to a close there being but one more day for the contest. Miss Whittenberg is still leading with a total of 483 votes. Following are the standings of the contestants. Minnie Whittenberg, 483; Dolly Kneebes, 456; Laura Larson, 60; Elsie Ott, 52; Bessie Close, 45; Lila Anderson, 45; Marie Stallsmith, 60; Josephine Utka, 55; and Lily Riek, 80.

ONCE SAVED LIFE OF SECRETARY NORTON

United States Delegate Ralph Cameron from Arizona.

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Delegate Cameron is one of the many happy citizens of Arizona, who are wearing a happy smile these days because their state is to be admitted into the Union.

An interesting yarn is told about Mr. Cameron in which President Taft is vitally interested, for had it not been for his assistance the president would not now have the services of C. D. Norton as his private secretary. The incident occurred some time ago while Norton was on a hunting trip in Arizona. Norton had wandered away from the party and had not been seen by anyone during the entire day. As night fell much concern was felt for his safety, and searching parties were organized in an effort to locate him. The following day he came riding into camp on a mule with Mr. Cameron as a guide, none the worse for his experience which might, however, have been fatal.

Norton had become lost in the wilderness and only by the merest chance had Mr. Cameron happened to locate him and bring him safely into camp.

LONDON PAPERS UPHOLD WHITES

LONDON, July 6.—While deploring the American race riots that followed the Jeffries-Johnson fight, London newspapers today unexpectedly offered excuses for the disorders and generally admitted that Europeans have little idea of the race situation in the United States.

The usually anti-American Globe, referring to the attempt to lynch a negro in New York city, declares: "Really our sympathy runs to the men with the rope than to the blatant blacks. It is against human nature to expect the whites to accept the negroes' insolent assertion that Johnson's victory established the supremacy of the blacks which the whites protest against. Americans are the trustees of the predominance of the whites over the blacks and we believe they will be true to the trust."

The London papers generally deplore prize fights between whites and blacks as ending to raise the racial law, which is now worrying England in South Africa.

The Standard is shocked at the presence of women at the fight and says that "when next we are shocked by the spectacle of Spanish women at a bull fight, let us remember that in an Anglo-Saxon community, women looked on while two nearly naked men fought each other until one was pounded into insensibility."

TO HEAR REPORT ON WATER SYSTEM

Joint Meeting of Aldermen and Jobbers and Board of Trade on Thursday

Mayor Sorensen has received a letter from the firm of Goodwin & Harper of Kansas City, Mo., informing him that William G. Goodwin, a member of the firm, will be in La Crosse on Thursday evening of this week to submit a report relating to the water conditions in this city.

The mayor has called a meeting of the common council as a committee of the whole and also the special commiteees appointed by the La Crosse Manufacturers' and Jobbers' club and the board of trade, for the purpose of listening to the report of Mr. Goodwin, which will give some valuable information regarding the conditions that exist and also as to which system of water works is best adapted to the needs of this city.

The employing of this firm to make an investigation was the outgrowth of an investigation made by the jobbers and the board of trade committees, which recommended to the common council that an expert be employed to go into this question thoroughly and submit a report so the citizens may know whether a well system, a sedimentation plant or a reservoir system is the most practicable. The meeting promises to be an intersting one, and any one who is interested in the question of a better water supply, is invited to attend.

LA CROSSE WILL ALLOW PICTURES

Mayor Sees No Reason why Jeff-Johnson Fight Can Not Be Produced Here without Difficulty

"I should say let them exhibit." This is what Mayor Ori J. Sorensen said today when informed of the ban being put on the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures in many cities, and asked what will be his attitude when the pictures reach La Crosse. "We are so far north," continued the mayor, "that there would be no danger of engendering race feeling, and what few colored people we have in La Crosse are not the sort to engage in any trouble. I see no reason why the fight pictures should not be exhibited here when they come, and I can see no reason why I should object to them."

The chief of police expressed a similar view, declaring the men of the police force, who have been "keeping cases" on fight talk and possible trouble since the defeat of Jeffries, report all negroes in the city have been orderly, and there has been no disposition upon the part of the negroes or the white citizens to stir racial trouble as the result of the Reno battle.

DOERFLINGER'S BEAT VIROQUA TOSSERS

Playing errorless ball the Doerflinger Park Store nine defeated Viroqua at that place Sunday by the score of 12 to 0. Although Krause for the Doerflingers was not in strike-out form he allowed but two scattered hits. The Viroquans used two pitchers, but both were erratic and wild. The infield of the Parks was working in excellent form accepting tyenty assists without an error. The feature of the game was the fielding of Beranek and Withrow, the former robbing the Viroquans of two hits while the latter accepted nine ground chances without an error. The lineup:

Doerflingers—Beranek, ss; Romanowsky, c; Rochelt, lf; Weisse, 1st; Meinert, rf; Withrow, 2nd; Kolb, 3rd; Burkhardt, cf; Krause, p.

Viroqua—Bush, 3rd; Harris, 2nd; Goshing, lf; F. Rogers, 1st; Morrison, rf; G. Rogers, c; M. Fleming, cf; Guerren, ss; Hauge, p; W. Fleming, p.

NEWPORTERS TO HAVE AIR LINER

Zodiac Is Taken to the Summer Resort and will Take Passengers

NEWPORT, R. I., July 6.—Newport's wealthy summer residents are to have a sensation this year.

The novelty will be a dirigible airship line, the first in America. With his machine already on the ground, Stewart Davis, who represents the Zodiac Dirigible Airship company of New York, is hustling today completing the aerodomes at which the big flyer will berth after its voyages from here via Rocky Point to Scarboro Beach at Narragansett Pier.

It is expected that the airline will be in operation here within six weeks. The dirigible was quietly brought into New York on Monday by Davis and shipped here at once. Just as soon as the first aerodome here is ready the dirigible will be inflated and tried out. Already scores of applications for seats have been received, and if the plan proves successful, the company will duplicate its venture at other summer points along the coast.

The Zodiac, as the first airship is named, is 100 feet long and will carry six persons for two hours. It is of French make and has already made many flights over Paris. A French crew will be imported to run the flier on its early trips. The Zodiac is non-rigid in type, having no metal frame like the Zeppelin. The total amount of gas in the bag amounts to about 20,000 cubic feet.

The frame underneath in which the passenger car is built, is made of wood and steel. The craft is to sail only on calm days. The trip will probably be made within one hour. For o rdinary occasions it is proposed to run the craft three or four times each day.

The tariff rate has not been fixed. It will be based on the estimated time consumed in a flight. It is probable that $500 will be charged to charter the craft for an afternoon.

WON'T NAME HIS BABY FOR "JEFF"

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., July 6.—Unless some white fighter arises in the immediate future and mauls Jack Johnson into submission, the infant son of Charles C. Gorman, of this city, may yet wear some name like Algernon, instead of James J. Jeffries, the name that was picked for him by a proud and doting father who fell into the common snare of believing that Jeffries was the "hope of the white race."

The Gormans were just about ready to put the Jeffries cognomen to their offspring when the news of the fifteenth round was received.

"It's all off!" shouted the father.

"Name it John Arthur Johnson Gorman," a friend suggested.

"Not in a thousand years," Gorman retorted in wrath.

TROOPS COMING; WILL CAMP HERE

Mayor Sorensen has received a letter from Lieut. L. W. Prunty, Fourth cavalry adjutant and quartermaster, informing him that three troops of the Fourth cavalry will arrive in La Crosse on Wednesday, July 27, ,remaining here until Friday, July 29. Permission is asked to camp on the interstate fair grounds, which has been granted. This will be the largest body of soldiers that ever passed through La Crosse on the way to the national camp at Sparta, since the latter was established. The troops will be in charge of Capt. L. M. Koehler, a nephew of the late John Gund of this city.

RECEIVE MONEY FOR PENSION FUND

Chief Bradfield of the fire department received a check this morning from Albert F. Funk, secretary of La Crosse Rubber Mills company, for $25, to be placed in the firemen's pension fund. This amount was sent to the department in recognition of the promptness in which it turned out Tuesday morning when a shed burned near the plant of the company.

NEUMEISTER TO BE RE-EXAMINED

Application has been made by William Neumeister to have physicians appointed to re-examine him in order that he may be restored to citizenship. Mr. Neumeister is out on paroie from the state hospital at Mendota. He has been here for some time and is working on his farm hauling hay.

STREET OPENING JURY APPOINTED

Judge Brindley Names Twelve Men who will Pass Upon Necessity of the Work

Judge Brindley this morning appointed a jury in the street opening matter, which will meet next Monday morning at 9 o'clock to view the property and determine whether or not the land should be condemned for street and park purposes. The levee park is included in this proceeding. The following jury was appointed: John C. Burns, E. G. Boynton, John Streeter, John S. Hougen, John Dengler, C. A. Thomas, John Freehoff, F. R. Hickisch, Peter Newburg, William Yeo, Henry Niebuhr and John C. Hulberg.

After the jury has viewed the property it will make a report to Judge Brindley, making such recommendations as it deems advisable. Then a commission will be named to assess the benefits and damage to the property affected.

ENDEAVORERS TRY TO STOP EXHIBITS

there was passed a resolution introduced by Wm. A. Pinkerton of Chicago, requesting the police to stop all the moving picture shows that exhibit films casting ridicule upon the police, or showing pictures of criminal acts, thus tending to increase crime. Moving pictures of prize fights are placed in this latter category.

Mayor Wm. J. Gaynor of New York today declared he would take no action looking toward barring the pictures.

"New York," he said, "has not the large negro population of other cities and I am sure that there will be no race feeling engendered here by the pictures."

Cincinnati Mayor Acts

But what Mayor Gaynor refuses to do, Mayor Schwab of Cincinnati has already done. "I cannot share the belief of those who believe such an exhibition has any good effect, like increasing interest in physical culture. It would not be consistent to bar the actual fight and then allow the pictures to be shown" he said.

It was in Cincinnati that the troops were called out to prevent the Jeffries-Ruhlin fight several years ago.

Mayor Maddox of Atlanta, Ga., acting with Carlos Mason, chairman of the police board, has refused to allow the pictures shown there.

"We had a race riot here Monday night and if the police reserves had not arrived quickly, it might have assumed serious proportions. I shall most certainly not allow the pictures shown here and inflame the sentiment any more against the negroes," said Mayor Maddox.

Chairman Reynolds of the police board of St. Louis, has called a special meeting of the board tonight to prevent the exhibition in that city.

In many southern cities the agitation against the fight pictures is increasinfi due to the fact that a negro was the victor. The sight of a negro standing over the prostrate form of a white champion, it is generally believed, would be sure to instill a feeling of race prejudice that would end in race rioting.

Mayor Reybourn of Philadelphia, declines to stop the fight pictures.

Baltimore is almost sure to bar the pictures. The board of police commissioners, has asked Mayor Mahool to take action and the chief executive replied that such a request from the commissioners would meet with his hearty approval.

Crusade Extends Abroad

The crusade has extended abroad. In Johannesburg, South Africa, the biograph halls themselves have prohibited the pictures. The latent race feeling in South Africa would burst into a flame,the fanagers declare, if the pictures were placed on exhibition in that city.

Boston Joins Antis

BOSTON, July 6.—Denouncing prize fighting as brutalizing and the exhibition pictures of the Reno fight as no less so, Mayor Fitzgerald of Boston today announced that Boston would see nothing of the Jeffries-Johnson battle.

MONEY OFFERED BROWNE JURORS

Warrant Out Today for a Butcher Alleged to Have Tampered with Them

CHICAGO, July 6.—John Mulloy, a Chicago butcher, was indicted today by the grand jury on a charge of attempting to tamper with the jury which recently sat in the trial of Lee O'Neil Browne, according to a statement given out by Asst. States Atty. Marshall. Mulloy is a democratic politician.

At the states attorney's office it was charged that Mulloy approached the wife of Oscar T. Morford, one of the jurors, and urged her to influence her husband to vote for Browne's acquittal. It was also charged that every man on the Browne jury was approached either directly or indirectly in behalf of Browne.

A warrant was issued for Mulloy's arrest this afternoon and an officer sent out to serve it. According to the story the states attorney's office said Morford and his wife told the prosecutor, Mulloy handed Mrs. Morford three cigars when she was in his store one day, telling her to give them to her husband and to tell him that "if he voted for Browne's acquittal there would be so much money in it that he would never have to go back to work as a railroad switchman."

Mrs. Morford said that she gave her husband the cigars, but did not dare tell him what the butcher had said and she later informed Mulloy that she had not repeated the message.

Mulloy, she said, remarked: "That's too bad. There would have been a pile of money in it for him."

ture shows here unless it is found they incite riot and encourage crime, according to the Director of Public Safety John M. Morin and Supt. of Police Thomas A. McQuaide here today.

Colorado to Permit It

DENVER, Colo., July 6.—Despite the service on him today of resolutions adopted by a committee of Colorado reformers, headed by Judge Ben Lindsey, calling upon him to stop the exhibition of the Jeffries-Johnson moving pictures in Colorado, Gov. Shafroth announced today that he would not discourage the fight exhibition.

Omaha Won't Stop 'Em

OMAHA, Neb., July 6.—Acting Mayor Brucker of Omaha, said "I will not be a party to stopping the display of fight pictures in Omaha unless all moving pictures shows are abolished.

Special Session in Texas

AUSTIN, Tex., July 6.—The exhibition of the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures will not be permitted in Texas, if Gov. Campbell has his way. The governor declared today that he will recommend to the special session of the legislature which convenes July 19, that a law be enacted prohibiting the fight being shown in the state.

No Pictures at Capital

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 5.—The commissioners of the District of Columbia today issued an order prohibiting the exhibition of moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight within the boundaries of the district. The action was taken upon the recommendation of Chief of Police Sylvester. The fear of a repetition of Monday night's race riots was the chief incentive of the commissioners.

No Pictures in Iowa

DES MOINES, Ia., July 6.—There will be no moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight shown in Iowa. A state law prohibits it.

To Divide the Races

NEW ORLEANS, La., July 6.—Authorities here decided today that the promoters of the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures will be permitted to exhibit the pictures in New Orleans but negroes must not be allowed to mingle with the whites in the theater where the show is put on. The police official held that one floor should be reserved for the whites and one for the negroes.

Milwaukee Will Wait

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 6.—The movement against the exhibition of the Jeffries-Johnson prize fight pictures will not be taken up in Milwaukee until the films are shown here. It is possible that the police may take action if it is found that the pictures contain objectionable features.

Nor in Lincoln

LINCOLN, Neb., July 6.—"The

SLOCUM'S SISTER SHIP TAKES FIRE

Flames Discovered on the Grand Republic, but Passengers Are All Taken Off in Safety

NEW YORK, July 6.—The big excursion side wheel steamboat, Grand Republic, a sister ship of the ill fated General Slocum, which burned in New York harbor a few years ago with the loss of 1,200 lives, was discovered in flames this afternoon as she came through the narrows, in the lower bay.

As soon as the flames were noticed by those on shore a number of tugs and pleasure boats put out to her assistance. Her captain headed her for the nearest dock and in the meantime several fire boats were hurried to the scene.

To those on shore it did not seem that there were many passengers aboard.

While the big steamboat was dashing shoreward, sounding her sirens, a number of the pleasure boats began taking off the frightened passengers.

All were saved.

At 3 p. m. the fire was under control. There were only thirty passengers aboard at the time the flames broke out.

Johnson-Jeffries fight pictures will not be exhibited in Lincoln," declared Chief of Police Malone today.

Chicago Won't Object

CHICAGO, July 6.. Although protest has been made to the city against the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures, there is little likelihood of their being barred from Chicago. Both Mayor Busse and Chief of Police Steward said today that they could see no reason for discriminating against the Jeffries-Johnson pictures, in view of the fact that other fight pictures had been allowed in local theaters.

Columbus Waiting

COLUMBUS, O., July 6.—That the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures reproduce a barbarous affair, that they would have a demoralizing effect on youth and that they will breed racial troubles are some of the reasons being urged today why Mayor Marshall should forbid the presentation of the pictures here. The mayor has not yet committed himself.

"While I have not yet received the view of the safety board, I do not believe the pictures will be prohibited in Indianapolis. I cannot see any harm in them.

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 6.—Mayor Skain and City Judge Southgate today declared that no fight pictures were to be shown in Lexington.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 6.—Mayor Head has announced that the Jeffries-Johnson pictures will not be permitted in Louisville.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 6.—Gov. Thomas R. Marshall said: "Off hand, I am inclined to think the matter should be left to mayors and chiefs of police of cities in which the pictures may be shown."

Personally he is opposed.

Frisco ants Pictures

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 6.—The agitation against the exhibition of the motion pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight will probably not be taken up in the larger cities of the Pacific coast.

It is almost certain that there will be no action against the pictures in San Francisco.

Unless Gov. Gillette acts—and it is not expected that he will—it is improbable that there will be a movement against the pictures here.

Frisco in Line

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 6.—It appears likely that the city authorities of San Francisco will fall into line with the authorities of many big eastern cities and prohibit the exhibition of the moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson prize fight.

New Orleans Forbids 'Em

NEW ORLEANS, La., July 6.—At noon Mayor Behring reversed his decision relative to the exhibiting of the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures in New Orleans and issued an order that the films could not be shown here. The mayor said he feared there might be rioting.

Prevent it in Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 6.—Gov. Donaghey today stated that if it was possible to legally prevent the pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight being shown in Arkansas, he would see that the films were not brought into the state.

"I'll have to get another typewriter," said the bustling man. "This one is constantly stopping my dictation to ask how some word is spelled."

"That's a great loss of time."

LA FOLLETTE CAN NOT BE DEFEATED

His Enemies Admit it, Says Lecturer; Senator in Madison Today After a Long Absence

MADISON, Wis., July 6.—Special.—"I can see nothing to it but La Follette in section visited," said Frank T. Tucker, candidate for attorney general today upon his return from visits to Hudson, Chetek, and Rice Lake.He spoke at Rice Lake July 2nd. Sofe of the senators bitterest foes in the northwest of Wisconsin, told Tucker that La Follette couldn't be beaten.

Senator Robert M. La Follette arrived in Madison at 8 o'clock this morning after a continued absence since January. Announcements of his arrival has set at rest rumors of his presence at various health resorts and assurance was given by C. H. Crownhart, the senators campaign manger, that La Follette returns much improved in health and will soon be ready for active compaigning. Sen. La Follette who was accompanied by his son Robert, spent some time at Mackinac Islands after a lake trip. He has consistently avoided politics on the trip but in a few days will take up with his advisors base plans for the coming speaking tour.

SUIT IS BROUGHT AGAINST BROTHER

An interesting case is being tried before Judge Higbee in circuit court today in which Miss Margaret Cock is the plaintiff and Joseph Cook, her brother, is the defendant. The action is brought on a contract for support. The defendant several years ago, bought the farm of his father in Trempealeau county, under the provision t hat the father and his two sisters could live on the farm, the former as long as he lived and the sisters as long as they remained single. One of the sisters was married, but the plaintiff is still unmarried, but according to the testimony, the brother has borbidden her to remain there.

JOHNSON SAYS HE WON'T RETIRE

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 6.—When Mrs. Tiny Johnson, mother of the world's champion heavyweight, announced that her son would retire from the ring now that he has defeated Jeffries, she evidently failed to consult her son before doing so. The big black pugilist arrived in Cheyenne in his private car at 11:40 today and was greeted by a crowd of 2,000, shaking hands with everybody in sight. When Johnson was asked if it was true that he intended to forsake the ring, his "golden smile" broke into a hearty laugh and he said:

"There was nothing in that report."

Johnson looked none the worse for his experience in Ogden yesterday when two toughs attempted to pick a fight with him, evidently with the purpose of getting an excuse for inflicting bodily injury.

Grain Letter

CHICAGO, July 6.—Beneficial rains fell over a good portion of North Dakota between the close of markets yesterday and the opening of the board of trade transactions this morning. The effect was decidedly bearish at the start and forced a break of 1¼ to 1¾ cents from the high closing figures on the advance of nearly 4 cents yesterday. From $1.01⅝ July price was off to $1.01¼; September, which closed at $1.01¾, sold at $1.01 and $1.00⅛. December price broke from above $1.03 to $1.02. The selling was general. Market was bare of buying orders at opening and this made the break all the more abrupt. Local bulls were quick to take the buying side around bottom prices and the market had good recovery of ½ to ¾ cent. The September price had a rally to $1.00¾ and rest later $1.00. December rallied to $1.02½ but weakened a second time to $1.02.

Corn traders changed their tune decidedly as soon as they could get into the market today. Prices had a very strong turn at the close yesterday, following wheat, the September up to 61¾ cents and December up to 59¾ cents. From these figures there was an early break today to 60⅝ and 58⅞ cents. Only light rally of ¼ cent followed this sharp dip. The break was because of the greatly improved weather map.

Oats prices were lower with other grains. There was considerable selling by local longs. The crop is making good headway. July oats opened at 39⅝ cents to 39½ cents to 39½ cents, sold to 39¾ to 39⅞ cents, off to 39¼ to 39⅜ cents, back to 39⅜ cents. September opened at 39⅜ cents to 39 cents, sold to 39¼ cents, of to 38¾ cents, back to 38 cents.

Provisions had a firmer start but lost most of the advance during the subsequent trading. There was a good general demand in evidence because of the light run of hogs but on the hard spots selling orders.

FARMERS' INSTITUTES

Any farmer or public-spirited business man in Wisconsin who wishes to secure an institute for his locality during the winter of 1910-1911 should send to us for a blank petition and letter of information. Any town, no matter how small or how far from the railroad, is entitled to an institute, provided it is located in a farming district and has a good hall in which a meeting can be held.

Farmers should talk this matter up with their neighbors and if the sentiment seems favorable for an institute for their town they should write us at once for application blanks.

Address all comunications to Geo. McKerrow, Supt., Madison, Wis.

The lights never go out on a scandal.

WAUSAU WINS THE OPENING GAME

Umpire McDermott's Poor Decision in the First Round Allows the Winning Run

The Wausau Lumberjacks copped the first game of the series from the Outcasts in the yard behind the fair grounds yesterday afternoon by the score of 2 to 1—that is they were officially awarded the game by that score by the umpire, Mr. McDermott. It was a bum decision in the very first round by the afore mentioned arbiter that made possible the victory by the visitors.

How the indicator demonstrator may have considerable influence in the winning of a game was shown in the battle yesterday. At the worst the score should have been tied at the end of the ninth inning but it wasn't.

A feature of the game was the batting of Carter. He hit three times out of four times at bat. Two of the hits were doubles.

Schieffer, the Lumberjack southpaw, had it on the La Crosse willow wielders and it was seldom that they were able to locate him for anything that looked dangerous.

Wausau scored on the jump. Bond grounded to Prater and Cahill repeated the same stunt to Doll. Carter hit to center for a single and stole second. While McDermott was intent on calling strikes on Dolan, who was batting, Carter tried to steal third, was caught by a mile by Zalusky's heave to Connell and all the La Crosse players started to come in to the bench. Carter kept on agoing and scored and McDermott called him safe at third and counted the run. Either the umpire was asleep or else he was watching intently the ball being delivered by the pitcher instead of the bag, or probably his view at third was obstructed by Zalusky, who stood in front of him when he made the throw to third. But from the stands it looked like a nap. Dolan got his base on balls but died at second.

Connell hit to third, beating the throw to first. Ward grounded to Brody, who tagged Connell. Doll grounded to Brody, who threw Ward out at second. Shorty stole second and Field's slam to left field scored him with La Crosse's only run. Field died trying to pilfer second.

Wausau added another, the last, in the eighthm round when Cahill was walked, stole second and scored on Carter's double to right along the base line.

In the ninth La Crosse had three men on bases with one out but Hooker, batting for Prater, struck out and Connell flied out to Cahill, who saved the game with a hair raising ground catch in center field. The official score:

WANT WHITES AND BLACKS SEPARATED

MELBOURNE, Australia, July 6.—Tommy Burns, erstwhile idol of Australian fight lovers, who made Jeffries' defeat by Johnson possible, by himself getting licked because the black is coming in for a good deal of caustic criticism today and is being generally blamed for the defeat of Jeffres, for accepting a battle with Johnson for purely a pecuniary gain.

Jeffries' defeat is much regretted in Australia, but it was generally expected. Australian sports are now agitating two championships, one for black men and one for white men.

RICKARD CLEANS $100,000 CASH

Promoter Quits Big Winner on the Fight; Jeffries, Crushed, Leaves Reno, Nev.

RENO, Nev., July 6.—Tex Rickard, after pocketing all the losses he sustained as the result of the disastrous San Francisco experience, has cleaned up close to $100,000 from the Jeffries-Johnson fight. The profits of Jack Gleason, his partner, can not be estimated until all the receipts from the motion pictures of the battle are in, Gleason having refused to sell his share of the pictures.

Rickard was about town today, looking as happy as a boy, following his announcement last night that the total receipts of the fight were $270,775, which establishes a new record in pugilistic history. Of this sum $121,000 was paid to the fighters and the failure to hold the fight in San Francisco cost the promoters $30,000, leaving $120,000 to be divided equally between Rickard and Gleason.

In addition to this Rickard sold his share of the moving pictures for $33,333, giving him a total profit of $93,333. Gleason's profit is $60,000 and whatever he clears from the motion pictures. With the departure of Jeffries and his party for the west last night, practically all the ring celebrities who shone about the ringside have left the city and Reno is assuming its normal tone.

Jeff is Crushed

Jeffries' departure was in striking contrast to the ovation he received on his arrival here several weeks ago. There was no cheering and the big bear drove through the streets in his automobile silently, almost shrinkingly. No word of reproach was heard, though his route to the depot was lined on both sides with silent men.

Jeffries appeared like a man utterly crushed by the blow that had been delivered to his hopes. When he alighted from his auto at the depot he walked unsteadily, hanging his head like a whipped school boy. As soon as his car was opened, the former champion hurried into it and hid himself from the public gaze.
